SENIORS SEEKING A SOFT LANDING

By Sue Buchholz
Photos by Jolene Podoll

The shelter is currently housing a few senior dogs. We are sharing our love and keeping them safe and warm, but they would much prefer to once again have a home to call their own.

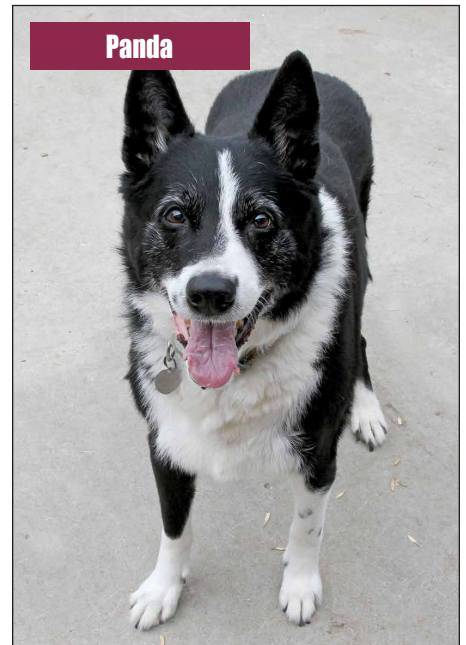

Panda is a young-at-heart, 15-year-old Shepherd/Border Collie cross whose lifelong caretaker became too ill to care for him any longer. It was with a heavy heart that she surrendered him to us in hopes of someone else loving him as much as she did.

Panda is in good health, with a bit of arthritis in his hips and legs. He is on Rimadyl now and feels much better. He loves to be brushed and is a very affectionate fella. He has been an indoor dog all his life and needs to retire in the same comfy accommodations he is accustomed to. If his sweet face touches your heart stop out and meet him. He loves company. Panda previously lived with cats and his caretaker reported that he loves children. He did not live with other dogs, but does not seem to mind his shelter neighbors.

Puppy and Scrappy are a Mutt and Jeff duo that are quite the pair! Sadly, their caretaker passed away tragically and unexpectedly, leaving Puppy and Scrappy very confused and heartsick. Puppy is an 11-year-old Black Lab who is spayed and sweet as can be. She loves slow walks and has a very gentle disposition. She too needs Rimadyl and a glucosamine supplement for arthritis. Puppy hopes that a home that knows

Shelter Report

By Sue Buchholz, Shelter Director

It is with a heavy heart that I report the loss of my work buddy, Coty – my faithful sidekick at work and home since July of 2007.

I adopted Buddy from CDHS in 1994. He was a black fuzzy Shephard Border Collie mix, and he was the beginning of the whole ‘constant companion’ gig for me. He faithfully accompanied me and served CDHS in countless ways until he passed away in 2007. As irony would have it, when Buddy passed away, I happened to be bottle feeding a six-day old injured Coty. Coty slid right into Buddy’s very big shoes. She became the second black fuzzy dog to think me worthy of being called Mom, and I am all the luckier for it.

The loss of these beings is a devastating one and I know that I am not alone in experiencing this deep grief, yet I wouldn’t trade my time with either of them for anything. The only thing I would change? It would be best if we could keep them longer. Coty was a fixture at the shelter and made many friends over the years. She served as a shelter greeter and was my constant companion. She took her jobs of empty-cat-food-can licker and chicken nugget tester very seriously. She will be missed by many and if she was still here, she’d be quick to give you a big burly paw to shake. Hug your fur kids often, it’s good for both of you. 🐾

the value of a wise ‘ole Lab is in her near future. Scrappy is not as scrappy as his name implies. He is estimated to be a 13-year-old Rat terrier. He is a neutered male and is not at all mean, but true to his breed he is just a bit aloof and slower to accept strangers into his circle. Scrappy also is in serious need of some dental work (which is scheduled soon) and that may improve his disposition too. We all know toothaches can make you crabby!

Puppy and Scrappy, while different in looks, size and personality, are a bonded pair and we think splitting them up would be a bad idea. They love and depend on each other, that’s for sure. Getting them a home together is perhaps not the easiest placement, but that’s our ultimate goal. They are available for adoption, but we would also consider a foster situation if the circumstances fit their needs.

If you have a soft spot for older and wiser dogs who are past all the puppy shenanigans and are smart enough to help you make wise decisions in life (they are all excellent listeners), we encourage you to stop out and meet these special seniors. 🐾

Mandy's Corner

By Mandy Schaaf, Volunteer and Event Coordinator

Bene-Pet is that fabulous event where we honor our volunteers and the work they do throughout the year. The night of Bene-Pet we focused on the great line up of famous entertainers that make up our amazing troupe of volunteers, and honored those that give so generously of their time to help CDHS pets find homes. We thank those who go "All-In" to help our dogs and cats, no matter what it takes or how much time it takes to rehabilitate our critters to the point where their personality and true potential comes to light.

We thank our Foster volunteers. This group is successful in their efforts, not because of "Beginners Luck" like in Vegas, but because they are experts at caring for those that are in a vulnerable condition and need a home environment. Thank you to Annette Tait, Anne & Margy Green, Sandra Brody and Steve and April Delap. Because of this group of compassionate folks many animals were given a second chance to grow into a healthy loving pet, or lived their last few years in comfort.

We thank our critter companions who donated at least 100 hours of their time in 2018. These dog walkers/cat companions include Darrell Njos, Jordan Fairaizl, Lindsey Dutton, Vedrana Hodzic, Danny Selinger, Cindy Auen, Ruth Borlaug, and Jenz Randolf. Thank you for the socializing, snuggling, and exercising our shelter kids.

We thank some "players" who don't gamble with CDHS resources but utilize them to help more animals in need. This includes Board President Jerry Kemmet, who once again donated many hours of his time managing the construction of our shelter and Treasurer Karen Holman, who works 80 hours a week at her "real job" and gambles away her sleep by working on financials for CDHS in the wee hours of the morning.

We thank the volunteers who chair some of our fundraising events. This list includes Michelle Thomsen and Connie Udby with the Race for Rescues, Cameo & Kiel Skager with Santa Paws, and Cindy Schafer and Sharon Cerkoney for their dedication and time with the Dog Days Deals Rummage Sale.

We thank Christy Zainhofsky. CDHS was the recipient of $1000, three times this year from Dan's Supermarket because Christy painstakingly kept track of the grocery receipts that folks donate toward our cause.

We thank Leon Connitz. Leon lives up the hill from the shelter and came to our rescue many times this blustery snowy winter. Leon shows up, digs us out and then charges back up the hill waiting for the next snowstorm.

We thank our canister crew. For years, Bertha O'Connor, Camie O'Connor, Sandy Gugel, Eric & Janelle Henninger have driven many miles on their lunch hours or after work, picking up canister donations, a service that results in thousands of dollars every year. They cover many miles a year and could have driven to Las Vegas and back with the miles they have logged.

We thank our Bene-Pet volunteers. Thank you to Connie Peterson, Jan Berger, Cindy Rohrick and Dan Lyons for all your dedication and many hours of hard work to make our event a success.

Volunteers of the Year – Jolene Podoll, Michelle & Mike Gayette, and Eileen Hannu.

And we thank our Volunteers of the Year. This year we simply could not pick one, so we choose four. This small group has given soooo many hours and so much of themselves in 2018. Between the four of them they have volunteered 1,700 hours in 2018. Our 2018 Volunteers of the Year are Jolene Podoll, Michelle & Mike Gayette, and Eileen Hannu.

Jolene Podoll averages between 60 and 80 hours a month working for CDHS. That's over 750 hours per year! Jolene takes photos of our shelter pets, spends hours at home editing, proofing and printing photos. She also writes up the descriptions for the website, and communicates with our staff and other volunteers about the critters getting posted to Facebook. She takes photos in every kind of weather and often comes out of a kennel with her pony tail undone and her clothes full of "stuff" from doing whatever she has to do to get the photo just right. She gets scratched and bit from time to time but it doesn't faze her one bit. There is no doubt that Jolene's professional and engaging photos help to get our shelter pets adopted.

Michelle & Mike Gayette really are like super heroes. They swoop in, help, and never hesitate to get involved with any crazy project. In 2018 they walked dogs, snuggled with cats, helped with fundraising events, painted, lifted, moved stuff. They volunteer with smiles on their faces and joy in their hearts. They take some of the needier pets under their wing and help them cope with whatever issues they are dealing with.

Eileen Hannu volunteered for 680 hours in 2018! Eileen walks dogs, plays with them in the play yards, brushes and combs dogs, and brings special treats. She looks into the souls of the dogs she works with and shows them why they should give humans a second chance. She doesn't mess around either, if they aren't challenge, she will let the other volunteers take the easier-to-walk dogs and she will take the ones that are often overlooked because of their demeanor in the kennel. Her heart is 100 percent with the dogs at CDHS and she is at the shelter with the sun shining, cold or hot weather, rain or snow or extremely cold temperatures.

We do good work and we can't do it without our volunteers. Almost 8,000 hours of volunteer hours were logged on my volunteer sheets in 2018. On behalf of the staff and board I think I can safely say you are all Fabulous! 🐾

Thank you to our amazing staff members who are celebrating a Years of Service milestone this year. Shelly Kohler (20 years), Tami Charvat (5 years), and Kaysi Kapsch (6 years), with Rusty. Your dedication, compassion, and expertise with the shelter pets is a HUGE part of why CDHS can help the animals.

Tours and Thanks and Things

🐾 Thank you to the American Family Insurance Dreams Foundation for their donation award of $1000. Terri, a customer of the Dee Heintz Agency, nominated CDHS and we were one of 250 awards nationally. Our thanks to Terri and Dee as well!

🐾 Thank you to Century High School AVID students. They held an Animal Shelter Food and Supply Drive and brought us boxes (and boxes!) of supplies. They just dropped them at our door, and didn't even get a thank you. We so appreciate your efforts!

🐾 Thank you many times over to the Aetna Foundation, who provides CDHS with ongoing support. We are forever grateful for the boost you give us!

🐾 Happy birthday and thank you! These generous supporters held Facebook fundraisers for CDHS during their birthday months. What a present! Eugene Feist, Jacoby James Woehl, Janelle Downs, Katie Bentz, Sandy Paulus, Reena Splane, and Angela Klein.

🐾 We so appreciate the donation of office furniture from the Office of the Federal Public Defender in Bismarck. It was perfect timing as we had some offices that needed workspace for humans and sleeping space for cats!

🐾 Thank you to The Bismarck Tribune for posting our adoptable pets on your website. All the exposure they can get helps us to adopt our cats and dogs.

🐾 A big shout out to Dakota Pharmacy. They continue to prepare a special anti-ulcer poloxamer gel that does wonders for Milly's leg.

🐾 Thank you to Simle students Sammi, McKenzie, and Alyssa for taking a tour of the shelter and learning more about caring for animals at a shelter.

🐾 Thank you to Eve LaFrambois for working on a project about CDHS for her FCCLA Star Event.

🐾 Hats off to Flasher School's 7th and 9th graders. They brought us many items from our Needs List and took a tour of the shelter. Go Bulldogs!

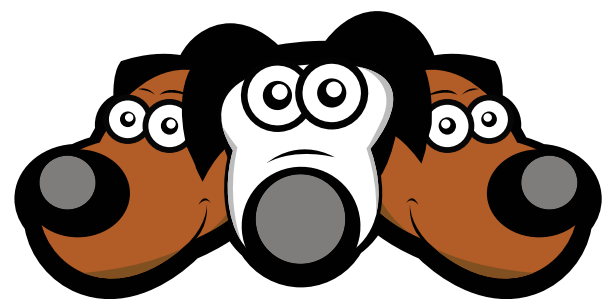

🐾 Thank you to the MDU Resources Foundation and Rita O'Neill. Rita volunteers on our board of directors and at many fundraisers and her employer donates to support her efforts. A two-for-one win!

🐾 Hurray for the Pioneer Elementary School Panthers. Their student council sold kindness rocks and donated the proceeds ($200) to CDHS. Wow!

🐾 Thank you to Starion Bank. In honor of their 50th Anniversary, they donated to a charity of choice for each of their employees. Rachael Erickson and Tara Ellwein chose CDHS. Amazing!

🐾 Happy birthday to Norah (above) and Haddie (right)! Both girls collected Needs List items for CDHS rather than birthday gifts. What great kindness and generosity! It just blows us away how young people have a heart for the animals.

MILLY'S JOURNEY TO RECOVERY

By Sue Buchholz, Shelter Director

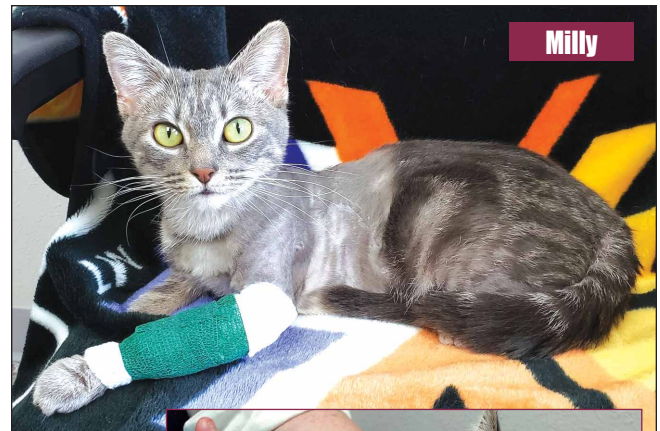

Milly continues to astound and impress us, so we want to keep you updated on her amazing progress. Milly came to us in late October with horrific wounds to both front legs. We don't know what happened, but the left leg was completely de-gloved (skinned) from elbow to paw, and the right leg was skinned, her foot crushed, plus other broken bones. After the Veterinarian surgically cleaned the wounds, we started the routine of changing her dressings every other day, and providing medications and wound care at the shelter. Milly accepted it all without any comment or fuss.

Milly showed progress in healing – very slow progress. Milly has more time than money so we all kept plugging away. We did the wound care and Milly did the healing. After a few months of slow healing, Dr. Kraft at Heart River Animal Hospital thought it was time to give the large wound a boost and suggested skin grafts. We talked it over. Milly trusts Dr. Kraft because she is always so nice, so we all agreed. Milly had her big surgery in March. It included pulling some shoulder skin down over her raw elbow and attaching it, as well as removing a large piece of skin from Milly's shoulder/back area and attaching the pieces to her left leg. Milly was also spayed at the same time so it was a long procedure and a big day for our very patient patient.

Then we waited. The bandage changes and wound care continued, as well as frequent visits to see Dr. Kraft. The happy report is, all grafts took immediately! No sloughing or rejection at all! Her body accepted the grafts and she continues to heal like a rock star.

Saving this sweet kitty has been exceptionally rewarding for all of us at the shelter, at Heart River Animal Hospital, and also the good folks at Dakota Pharmacy, who compound a special wound concoction that works absolute wonders. Milly has a very bright future ahead of her and deserves to live a pampered life. She holds no grudges and has no ill feelings about all she has endured. She only looks forward to eating and playing and having fun with loved ones. Maybe Milly is here to teach us a lesson? And our supporters (you) provided us the means to make her whole again. Milly thanks you, and so do we! 🐾
